

Minutes From Superintendent's forums

9/28 7PM RMS Media Center

There were approximately 10 parents/guardians in attendance.

The issue of teacher's doors being left open during the school day was brought up. The issue regarding the lack of air conditioning in Brooklake and Ridgedale was discussed.

The lack of substitute teachers was mentioned by parents.

11/16 10AM Board Conference Room

There were four parents in attendance

The lack of technology and a 1:1 program was discussed. The newspaper article regarding head lice was discussed. Bullying in Briarwood was mentioned.

2/18 7PM Board Conference Room

There were five parents in attendance

There was a discussion regarding PARCC testing and how parents could refuse testing.

There was a discussion about the overuse of screen time in Briarwood. A parent had articles regarding the issue with too much screen time for younger kids.

There was a discussion regarding the process for special education identification in Florham Park

4/4 10AM Board Conference Room

There was one parent in attendance.

There was a discussion around training teachers in Autism Awareness. A conversation regarding the causes behind Autism was held.

There was praise over the helping hands program and whether it would continue through second grade. This parent also felt that the bucket filling activities at Briarwood are fantastic and are really helpful. There was also praise over a first grade teacher for going out of her way to help students.